

FEBRUARY NEWS

Central Elementary

Welcome back to school!

What a crazy winter we have had this year! We certainly hope you were able to get some extra time with your family and a read a few good books during our unexpected time off. We are thrilled to have everyone back at school and are eager to get back to the business of learning.

Don't be alarmed if you get a phone call from school after hours, it might just be a

Fantastic Phone Call

from Mrs. Kaemming. Teachers will be nominating students who have done an exceptional job and their family will get a call from the principal that day.

Don't forget to check the back of this newsletter for the calendar.
